

Keith E. Carlson, AIA - Principal

Arizona State University
Bachelor of Architecture

Registered Architect

Texas, California, Florida, Louisiana, South Carolina,
Nevada, Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Georgia,
Illinois, Maryland, Missouri, Michigan, Montana,
New Mexico, New Jersey, Rhode Island, and Wyoming.

Certified by the National Council of Architectural Registration Boards

Member of the American Institute of Architects

Member of the Texas Society of Architects

Projects:

Regency Athletic Club
West University Recreation Center
Cypress Bend Hotel and Conference Center
Austin Town Lake Radisson
Peckham Park Natatorium
Providence Biltmore Hotel
Paradise Island Grand Hotel
Hobby Airport Hilton and Conference Center
El Paso Airport Hilton Hotel and Conference Center
Austin Bergstrom Airport Hilton
Trophy Club Condominiums
College Station Hilton and Conference Center
Egret Bay Condominiums
Deland Hilton/Deland, Florida
Greater Columbia Hotel and Convention Center

Keith Carlson is an architect with extensive building design and land planning experience in Texas, California, Florida and Hawaii. Completed projects range from high density residential, restaurant, and hotel design, to multi-block office building developments and shopping centers. In the past year he has seen implemented designs for residential and recreational projects, hotels, shopping centers and convention facilities.

Special interest includes research and development of amenity facilities for recreation/resort developments, and adaptive reuse and retro-fitting of existing buildings.